    d. Research Description
    e. Research Objectives
    f. Research Scope and limitations
    g. Research methodologies (research method used, sampling technique, population and sample size, research instrument, statistical techniques used)
6. The oral research presentation in the research forum will utilize an online form of discussion. The link will be provided to qualified research presenter who will be in the featured research for the month.
7. Presented research projects will also be included in the publication of the DDB Research Journal.

B. POSTER EXHIBIT PRESENTATION

1. Qualified research projects will also be included in the poster exhibit presentations of the research forum tentatively scheduled on 24 September 2021.
2. The poster exhibit presentation should include the following information:
    a. Title of the research/project
    b. Author or Proponent of the research/project
    c. Contact details of the Author or Proponent
    d. Research Description and Rationale
    e. Research Objectives
    f. Research Scope and Limitations
    g. Research methodologies (research method used, sampling technique, population and sample size, research instrument, statistical techniques used)
    h. Abstract
3. One poster panel with size (2Ft by 4Ft) will be allowed for entry.
4. Graphical and other visual presentations may be included.
5. Participants are expected to present their research utilizing blended (physical and online) discussion forms in the research forum.
6. Presented research projects will also be included in the publication of the DDB Research Journal.

C. CRITERIA FOR JUDGING

1. Technical Criteria (30%)
2. Presentation of the Research (35%)
3. Alignment and relevance of the research output on the field of drug abuse prevention and control. (15%)
4. The potential contribution of the research on the priorities and policies on drug demand and drug supply reduction. (25%)

D. AWARDS / INCENTIVES

Qualified research will be presented in the monthly featured research presentations on drug abuse prevention and control.

The presented research will also be included in the publication of the Dangerous Drugs Board research journal and will be featured in the DDB Research Bulletin.

The presenters on the monthly featured research presentations will also receive an honorarium and a certificate of recognition from the Dangerous Drugs Board.
