SUBJECT: ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 2021- 0043- "OMNIBUS GUIDELINES ON THE MINIMUM PUBLIC HEALTH STANDARDS FOR THE SAFE REOPENING OF INSTITUTIONS"

The safe reopening of the Philippine economy is vital in addressing the enormous revenue loss brought about by the pandemic, as this encompasses promoting economic activity while mitigating the risk of infection spread. Emphasis on the adherence to the minimum public health standards to prevent COVID-19 resurgence following the unrestricted reopening of the different sectors of the economy.

In relation to this, the Department of Health issued AO No. 2021-0043 dated August 31, 2021- Omnibus Guidelines on the Minimum Public Health Standards for the Safe Reopening of Institutions prescribing the minimum public health standards following the Prevent, Detect, Isolate, Treat, Reintegrate and Vaccinate (PDITR+) strategies to be implemented across all settings as the guide for the safe reopening of the different sectors of the economy.

Attached is the copy of the said administrative order for your information and widest dissemination.

Thank you.
