HEADS OF PHILIPPINE HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS

SUBJECT : AUN-QA INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE 2023

DATE : 04 May 2023

The Commission wishes to announce the call for registrations for the AUN-QA International Conference 2023 happening on 6-7 September 2023 at The Berkeley Hotel Pratunam in Bangkok, Thailand, as relayed by the ASEAN University Network (AUN) Secretariat.

The AUN-QA is a prominent figure spearheading quality assurance in higher education in the ASEAN region. The AUN-QA International Conference, the organization's premier conference, is an international platform for quality assurance practitioners to share and exchange their QA expertise and experiences on QA development and implementation in higher education institutions in ASEAN Member States and beyond. This year, the conference will carry the theme "Driving University Excellence through Quality: Strategies, Systems, Structures, and QA in the Context of Post-Pandemic Regional and Global Cooperation."

Given the nature of the conference, AUN-QA is inviting university QA personnel and those interested in QA development and enhancement to participate. The cost of accommodation, transportation, and local expenses will be borne by the sending university.

The early bird registration window will be from 17 April to 20 May 2023. Regular registration will begin on 26 May and end on 18 August. Further information on the programme structure, registration and payment schedule, and registration fee rates can be accessed at www.aunqaic2023.org.
